- Understanding conflicts in agile world
- 3 perceptual positions
- TKI
- Discussion

Understanding the conflict in agile

- Sprint pressure
- Conflicting stakeholder priorities
- Different working styles within teams
- Differing priorities between Product Owner and Development Team
- Conflicting opinions on Sprint scope during planning
- Varying interpretation of "Done" definition
- Clashes between agile and non-agile teams
- Disagreements during retrospectives on team performance
- Types of conflict:
 - Task-related conflicts (e.g., prioritization, execution approaches).
 - Interpersonal conflicts (e.g., team dynamics, communication breakdowns).

Understanding the conflict in agile

Tuckman's Model

3-positions Exercise

1. First position: Focus on your own perspective.
2. Second position: Put yourself in the other person's shoes and try to understand their perspective.
3. Third position: Adopt an observer's viewpoint to look at the conflict objectively.
 - Interactive Component:
 - Have participants practice shifting between the three positions for a conflict scenario provided by you (e.g., differing opinions on sprint priorities).
 - Takeaway: How adopting different perspectives can reduce emotional tension and lead to constructive conflict resolution.

3. Objective observer

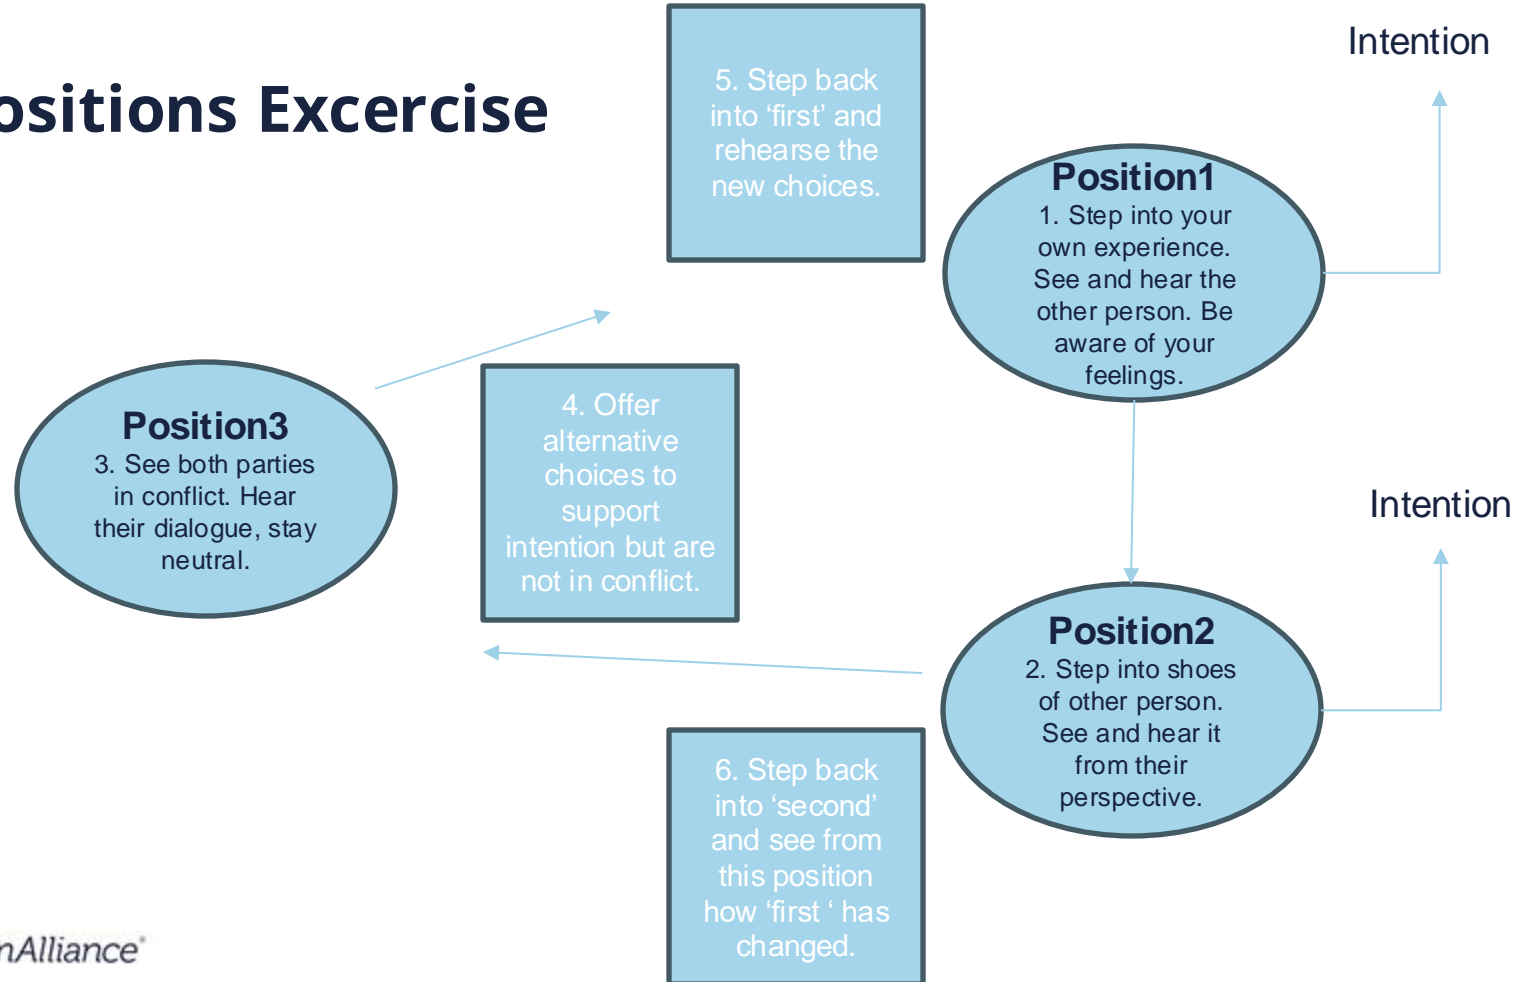

1. I

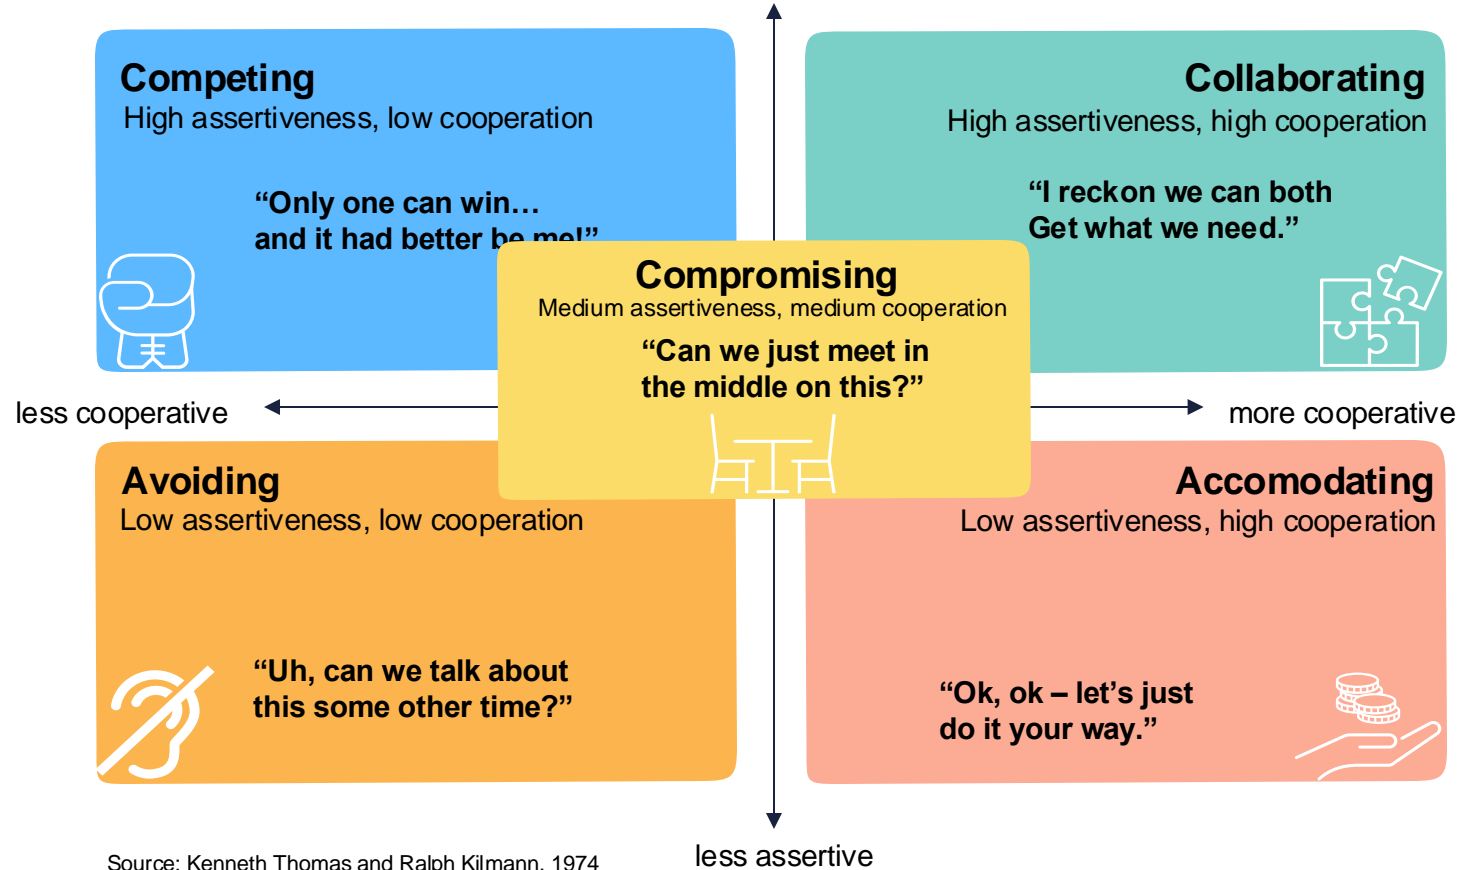

2. You
